

Outfitters for Hope

Child application for outdoor adventure!

Eligibility

ANY CHILD WHO MEETS THE FOLLOWING BASIC CRITERIA IS ELIGIBLE FOR CONSIDERATION

- Must be 10-17 yrs old (younger children may be accepted on a case to case basis following application review)
- Must be a legal US citizen
- Must meet at least one of the following 'status' criteria:
  - Medical status: must contain a diagnosis of a potentially life threatening or terminal illness in their past or present medical history. We define this as "Any progressive, degenerative or malignant disease/condition, resulting in a significant threat, likelihood or certainty that the child's life expectancy will not extend past his/her 19th birthday unless the course of the disease is interrupted or otherwise abated".
  - Hero status: must be the child of a fallen hero. We define fallen hero as any "Military veterans, firefighters, police officers or EMS providers who have become disabled (acquiring permanent physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities requiring the assistance of another person or mechanical device for physical mobility) or whom have paid the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty".
- Parent or legal guardian must be available to travel with child to fulfill dream hunt.
- Must have a heart for adventure and share the dream of hunting and fishing in the great outdoors!

Outfitters for Hope works to fulfill dreams within the State of Idaho. Currently we are best trained and equipped to handle big game hunting adventures. However, it is the goal of the organization to fulfill any child's hunting or fishing dreams regardless of what it is. In order to accomplish this we partner with multiple other non-profits with similar missions that might be better suited for your child's dream. If your child dreams of something other than what Outfitters for Hope provides please tell us and we will assist as best we can: _____
